

LILLE RYGENDE FIS

LITTLE SMOKING FART

JP/POLITIKENS FORLAGSHUS

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

ABOUT

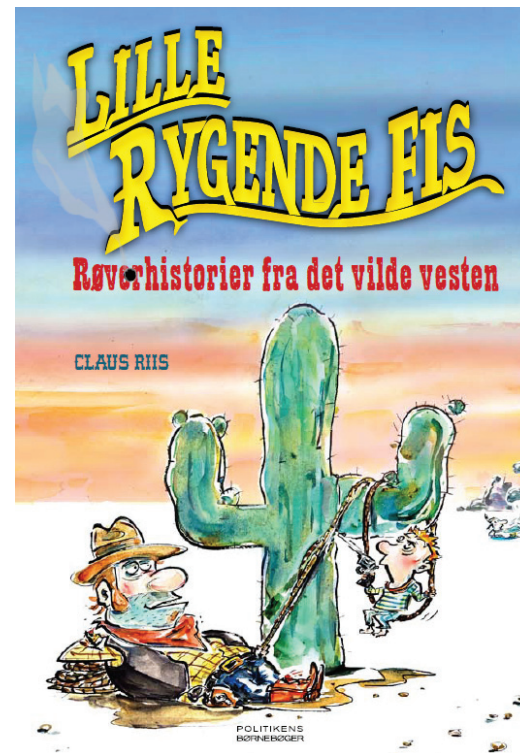

He smells like a cow and spins more yarns than a cock crows. His name is Billy Bob, and he's the worst nanny on the prairie. One evening he suddenly appears in Uffe's bedroom.

This illustrated children's book takes readers to the pretty wild Wild West, where men are weasels and women have tobacco stains in their moustaches.

You'll meet the bank robber Betty Bankbox and her seven snotty brats, and the Indian Little Smoky Fart, who is an expert on gas signals. Not to mention the smitten skunk Skunky, the Scottish gold digger MacCrabby and a host of other eccentrics who menace the prairie with their spittoons and undiluted gooseberry juice.

THE AUTHOR

Claus Riis is an illustrator who has provided drawings for several Danish books. In addition, he has worked for the newspaper Jyllands-Posten and the magazine Euroman. Little Smoking Fart is Riis' debut as a children's author.
